

The team at Aahilya Holidays has put together a useful list of links to help you plan your trip of a lifetime to India

Indian Tourist Visas – <https://indianvisaonline.gov.in>

Indian Visa Online – Government of India.

This is the official site for online applications for both eVisas and Regular Visas. It also provides all necessary information about the application process.

If you don't use this link – ensure you go to the correct site as there are some 'fake sites' with similar www's that look 'official'.

Travel Aware – <https://travelaware.campaign.gov.uk>

To make an informed decision about the destination you are considering visiting citizens should take the advice of their respective governments. For British citizens this is the FCO (Foreign & Commonwealth Office) and the site to refer to is Travel Aware.

This site has information about travelling abroad as well as a link to the FCO's Foreign Travel Advice site (<https://www.gov.uk/government/organisations/foreign-commonwealth-office>). We recommend you look at this before booking any holiday and then again before departure. You can also sign up for e-mail alerts.

The National Health Service– <http://www.fitfortravel.nhs.uk>

For inoculation and health advice.

NaTHNaC – National Travel Health Network and Centre – <http://www.travelhealthpro.org.uk>

Travel health information for British health professionals and the public

Lounge Pass – www.loungepass.com/tp/ker-103

Start your holiday in comfort – book a lounge at your UK departure airport. Or if you have a long connection book a lounge at your transit airport.

India Tourism – <http://www.indiatouristoffice.org>

Provides information about travel to India

High Commission of India – <http://hcilondon.in/>

General information about India

Worldwide Travel Insurance –

UK residents front page:

– <http://www.worldwideinsure.com/index.htm?partnerID=200>

EU residents front page:–

<http://www.worldwideinsure.com/eu-travel-insurance.htm?partnerID=200>

For on-line holiday insurance at competitive prices

Pacific Medical Training –

<http://www.pacificmedicalacls.com/acls-guide-to-dengue-fever.html>

Article about Dengue fever.

Climate Care – <http://www.jpmorganclimatecare.com/responsibletravel>

If you are concerned about the environmental impact of flying then you may like to consider making a contribution to offset the carbon emissions.

Nomad Travel Clinics – www.nomadtravel.co.uk